

INTER HOUSE FOOTBALL COMPETITION

“Games are the most elevated form of investigation.”

Games are essential element of holistic development because they foster competition while preserving the values of integrity and togetherness. On 27 April,2023, Army Public School Rakhmuthi organized an Inter House football competition. All the four houses i.e Gandhi, Ambedkar, Patel, Nehru participated in it with great zeal. The weather was just right for the football match and amidst cheers and a light drizzle, the four House Teams were introduced to audience

The teams showcased their skills and determination while playing. The unending hardwork and the tremendous efforts by the teachers and the students were eloquently visible in the players' skills. The final match was played between Nehru and Ambedkar in which Nehru got the first position. Overall the event was fruitful and the students enjoyed a lot.
